

deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract, failing which, the deposit will be forfeited.

5. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of the first purchaser. If default is made in the payment of instalments on due date, i. e., 7th of every month, interest, at 1 pie per rupee per month, will be charged on the amount due after the 7th of every month till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold again at the discretion of the President, District Board, and the loss arising from the resale will be recovered from the former contractor, who shall not be entitled to the profits, if any.

6. The contractor is also bound to keep a detailed account showing collections and it shall be open to inspection by the officers of the Taluk and District Boards.

7. The contractor of the market will also be given the right of collecting and utilizing the market sweepings and it will be his duty to keep the premises clean, failing which, a fine of Re. 1 will be levied for each day per diem of default, and should the default continue for more than six days, the contract is liable to be cancelled and resold at his risk.

8. The contractor shall exhibit at the entrance to the market place on market days a notice board selling forth the rates at which fees are levied.

9. No claim for remission on account of prevalence of plague, cholera and other epidemics, or any other cause will be entertained.

10. The market is liable to be closed temporarily for the purpose of preventing the spread of epidemics, either among men or cattle if such a course is considered necessary by the President, District Board. No claim for remission consequent on such prohibition can however be entertained.

11. The shop fee is a levy in addition to the rent that has to be paid for occupying the stalls.

12. A person bringing things for his own shop, shall not be charged separate fees; one for the load and the other for exposing the things in the shop; but will be liable for only the higher fee.

13. The contractor shall be responsible for the care and cleanliness of the stalls. He shall not allow animals to be tethered in the stalls nor ovens to be kept therein.

14. The shop-keepers and the contractor are bound to obey the orders of the Taluk Board authorities with regard to the allocation of shops.

15. Should the contractor or his servants charge or attempt to charge any fees other than those stated in the schedule below, or should he or his servants fail to fulfil any of the obligations entailing on him by any of the preceding paragraphs, his contract will be liable to be cancelled, his deposit forfeited and the lease resold at his risk.

OFFICE OF THE CITY MUNICIPAL COUNCIL, BANGALORE.

Dated 17th March 1923.

VACANT SITES.

The following statement contains particulars about the vacant building sites for which the annual tax has not been paid and has been long in arrears. All attempts to trace the original purchasers have hitherto failed. Therefore this final notice is issued before the resumption of the sites.

2. The parties concerned or those who at present claim the sites are hereby required to produce the necessary evidence to establish their title and to pay up the arrears, before the expiry of three months from the date of this notice, failing which, the Municipal Council will resume the sites on the 25th June 1923 and sell them by auction on dates to be notified :—
